How My Friend Became a Source of My Motivation	11
How a friend of mine at age 19 made $50,000 a month in Poland. And to this day, he's only grown by multiples of income with his secret strategy. You won't believe some of the conversations I've had on Skype!	13
The oddball marketing system used by one of the top sales people for tear gas in the U.S. I had to work at the company to find that one out. It was a bit of a long summer. But hey, I got on TV, so it wasn't all bad. Kinda sucked when I squirted myself in the face with teargas accidentally!	19
How an insurance agent used the simplest darned postcard in the world to end up OWNING the agency he was selling for, generating leads for a whole boatload of sales people! This is the quintessential lesson in simplicity, creativity, marketing acumen and lead generation.	25
The seminar company that found out the WEIDEST possible thing made a massive difference in how much people bought on the "back end." Hint: It has to do with the airport but you'd never guess it in a million years.	29
The taxi cab driver I met in Nashville who had the cleverest little marketing system that snagged him ALL the primo runs to the airport that all the other taxi drivers fight over. And all it cost was $5 per hotel.	31
A friend of mine sold more raffle tickets at the boat show (as a young girl) than anyone using an idea you can probably apply to whatever you're selling. This one I found out because I drove to Austin and stayed at her million dollar lakefront home. Only the next morning over coffee did this one come out.	33
To A woman who didn't learn to read until she was 21 become a self-made millionaire in 3 years because she had a really clever way of selling books, an idea you can probably apply to whatever you're selling. This one I found out because I drove to Austin and stayed at her million dollar lakefront home.	35

This one little trick is the single biggest secret a FUNDRAISER could know or use. And it's amazing no one in other industries uses it. Because it'll work there just as well.	39
A friend of mine had 3 Clickbank Best Sellers (#1 in a highly competitive category) using this secret strategy still to this day I hardly ever see anyone at all use. Oh, you'd know his name if I told you. THAT is how well his secret works. But almost no one knows it. The reason he told me is I helped him out back when he was working out of a tiny apartment off his bed with a laptop. Now, he's rolling large in a swanky exotic car. The whole thing.	41
My father's brother had the simplest possible secret for making insurance companies successful. He won insurance executive of the year in the entire U.S. more than once. Once owned a jet airplane and all that. But he did one thing that others wouldn't do. And that made him successful. Could you morph, apply or use a derivative of what he did?	43
One of the top real estate agents in the U.S. experimented a whole year to find a few simple secrets of radio ads. Ever since then he has been #1 in Phoenix and OWNS the market there. What are his radio ad secrets? These are good ones!	45
A training company found itself on the rocks in hard, hard times. About to go under. My friend D.M. told 'em to mail just a 2-page letter to buyers. Saved the company and turned 'em around! Wanna what the 2-page letter said? Maybe you could use this strategy if you sell any kind of training.	47
Another friend of mine has a 2-page letter he sends out Fed-X that brings back $1200 checks like clockwork. Wanna know the gist of THAT letter?	49
My phone rang: "Marlon, where are you?" "Shoot Donnie, I'm sorry. I forgot and missed my flight. I'll be down tomorrow." I showed up the next day. He toured me through his 20,000 square foot house! Then his 2-story office complex. Then he said, "Hey Marlon, let me show you my direct mail room." There was one mailer for a $50 product. I said, "Donnie, where's the mailers for all your other stuff?" (Obviously you don't live in a 20,000 square foot house selling one $50 product!). What he said next, was his secret, and a real SHOCKER!	51

Interestingly enough, a man out about 2 hours from me used that SAME exact secret in an entirely different industry (buying and selling raw land) to become a multi-millionaire. He's got a little book on it you can buy on Amazon. You interested to know THAT secret?	69
You ever see those boxes giving away free memberships to this or that? Or that have a drawing to win something free? Well, the real inside scoop on those is hard to find out. But I dug deep and found out how those things are really run by pros that know what they're doing. A real lead generation goldmine.	75
Here's an interesting one: Microsoft is one of the biggest, most powerful companies in the world obviously. That's not anything you don't know. But here's what may be: They only use 5 marketing strategies for their products. One-by-one you can go through their ads and marketing campaigns and see this plain as day. For example, the Surface tablet is called "Both-and". These 5 methods have made billions for Microsoft. They might be able to sell a few products for you also.	79

And I got the real dirt on how he puts together all those JV's that no one else can get done. Jay can crack open endorsements and deals no one else can. There's a simple secret he uses. Interestingly enough, remember my client who was worth $600 million? In a very different way, he used the same SECRET!	89
Speaking of Churches, you know those huge, massive mega-churches with 10,000 in attendance? Did you know there is one MAIN marketing strategy they use to do that? And it's NOT what anyone thinks. I seriously doubt if there's one person reading this who knows what this method is. Yet, it's something you might be able to apply to YOUR business or endeavor on a smaller scale.	97
How about an NBA Basketball team? Think my kind of marketing doesn't apply to or work for them? Well check this out. John Spoelstra had the unenviable task of selling tickets to a team that had won ONE game! Yet he SOLD OUT seats and tickets! Unbelievable. Well get this: The way he did it can be used by YOU for whatever you sell. By the way, he's used this same method over and over with other kinds of sports teams too. Great strategy!	99
